FLOOR DEBATE

March 20, 2001 LB 827

Service Commission would need some more definition and direction than...than simply the words in your amendment and one of the reasons I say that is I think the service is available, I think the service is available almost anywhere for a price, and redundant service is probably available a lot of places for a price. And so I think you have to think through what that means. If you say it's not available, does that mean it's not available at a certain price or it's just not available for any price? Some of those kinds of questions I think need to be...need to be thought through for sure.

SENATOR BEUTLER: But that doesn't trouble you with respect to the Universal Service Fund, for example. I mean right now we leave it...

SENATOR BROMM: Say...say that again now.

SENATOR BEUTLER: With respect to the Universal Service Fund, for example,...

SENATOR BROMM: Um-hum.

SENATOR BEUTLER: ...don't we leave it to the PSC to determine at...at what rate they will subsidize the various carriers? In other words, you can't...we leave it to them...

SENATOR BROMM: Right.

SENATOR BEUTLER: ...to determine...

SENATOR BROMM: Right.

SENATOR BEUTLER: ...to determine what the local rate, the minimum local rate must be.

SENATOR BROMM: And...and there's a lot of...of data that they have available to base that judgment on as well.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Wouldn't they have similar kinds of data available to...to make a sort of judgment about this case? I mean, if there is another carrier out there, they're going to
